

Queensland
Government

A joint initiative of the Australian Network for Plant Conservation and the Queensland Government Threatened Species Program

Survey Training Workshop

On Thursday 29th August, the Queensland Threatened Plant Network will host a Survey Training Workshop in Stanthorpe, covering:

- Establishing a plant profile
- Key information to collect when conducting a Plant Survey
- Useful field-based survey tools
- When permits are required
- How survey data can be used to conserve threatened plants
- Demonstrate survey techniques in the field

Date 10am – 3pm
Thursday 29th August

Venue Meeting room, DAF Research Facility
Cnr New England Highway and Roessler Avenue, Applethorpe
Then later in Amiens State Forest<sup>1</sup>.

Catering Morning tea and lunch provided.

BYO Clothing you can wear in the field (including boots).
Water / Hat / Insect repellent / Sunscreen
Clipboard (if you have one)

RSVP Paul Donatiu
QTPN Project Manager
0434 258 076
Paul.donatiu@des.qld.gov.au

Tickets $10 each
Tickets booked through Humanitix
<https://events.humanitix.com/threatened-species-survey-training-workshop>

---

<sup>1</sup> Note that participants will need to drive/carpool to Amiens SF for the field session after lunch.